You can download and test all our fonts immediately by clicking the "Free trial" link on each typeface's font info section. By downloading the Trial Fonts Package on our website you agree to the terms & conditions of the "Free Trial License" and of Apex's EULA.

Trial fonts can only be used for testing purposes, in order to help you decide if the font is suitable for your needs before purchasing a complete retail font software license.

Any published or accessible work, online or offline is strictly prohibited.

The Trial License authorizes the use of the font exceptionally within a presentation, to a customer or internal to the company; the first phase of a competition; or a non-commercial student work presented in an educational setting. In these cases, the user must mention the name of the font and identify Apex Type Foundry as holder of all rights attached to the font. A regular license must then be purchased before any kind of exploitation, either commercial or not.

You can't — under any circumstance:

— delete the "TRIAL" entry
— open the font file in a font editing software and re-export or re-register it
— edit the font file
— add glyphs or typographic characters to the font
— develop the font in another language or in another writing system
— rename the font file or convert or change its format
— resell, rent, lend, give, distribute, make available to the public or sublicense the license or the font file
— convert the format of the file

Please note that Free trial fonts have a reduced character set, no OpenType features and a limited guarantee and support:
